Announcement.

The Chariton Hardware Co. desires to announce to its friends and patrons that it has secured the services of J. A. Faul, an experienced hardware man, to assist in the conduct of the business. The endeavor will be to follow as nearly as possible the policy and plans pursued by J. M. Blake, the recent manager.

The Revival.

ELD. J. M. LOWE,

who is in a meeting at the Christian church and will deliver his lecture to women and girls only at the church Saturday at 2:30 p. m. All men are invited to hear his lecture to men only, "Three Degrees in the Grand Lodge of Manhood," Sunday at 3 p. m.

All friends are welcome at all the regular meetings during the revival.

Notice.

Now that we are beginning on the last month in the year, let us have a settlement. We do not like to make personal demands to collect what is due us, but our books must be balanced by January 1. All accounts due us unpaid on that date will be placed in the hands of an agency that makes a business of collecting. We can settle without extra expense. Why not come and pay up now?

Cupid's Conquests.

MARTS SWITZER:—Win. N. Marte and Miss Allie Switzer, both of Brunswick were married in that city Wednesday, November 24, 1909, Justice L. E. Merrill officiating.

RILEY-ROBERTS:—Carl Riley and Miss Lula Roberts, both of Brunswick, were married in that city Monday, November 29, 1909, Rev. Franc. Mitchell of Keytesville sealing the plighted vows.

WILLIAMS-BROCKMAN:—Rex Williams of Cheney, Kas., and Miss Donnie Brockman one of Keytesville's winsome young ladies, were married at Wichita, Kas., Monday, November 29, 1909, Judge D. A. McCanler launching their hymeneal bark. Mr. Williams is a tonsorial artist at Cheney and he and his bride will make their home at that place.

The mayor's Court.

Homer Johnson, col., was caught by City Marshal Tisdale Thursday making an indecent exposure of his person on Bridge street, and immediately formed an impressive acquaintance of a club in the marshal's hands. Johnson was landed in the mayor's court Monday where he entered a plea of guilty, and his punishment was assessed at a fine of $1 and costs. The maximum punishment should have been dealt out to him.

Jas. M. Halley was arrested Sunday by City Marshal Edgar Tisdale for selling hard cider that day to one Chas. Littrell, an enebriate, who mines coal for a living. Halley was tried by a jury in Mayor J. T. Dewey's court Monday, found guilty and fined $50 and costs, the heaviest penalty imposed by the city ordinances for such an offense.

Halley was represented by Capt. J. C. Wallace and City Attorney Roy W. Rucker appeared for the city. The defendant took an appeal to the circuit court. Halley is reported to have made threats against the city marshal and city attorney, and if he carries them out he will succeed in getting into more trouble. It is high time that Sunday drunks in Keytesville, for which hard cider is said to be responsible, were abated, and it is hoped that Halley's fine will be the beginning of the end of such debauchery.

Chas. Littrell was also before his honor, Mayor J. T. Dewey, Monday on the charge of being drunk and disorderly Sunday. He pleaded guilty, and was fined $15 and costs, but was given a stay of execution during good behavior.
